

The Life and Work of Edward Thomas

With biographer Matthew Hollis (All Roads Lead to France) and poems read by Stephanie Cole, James Laurenson and Martin Bax. They will illuminate how Thomas came to poetry and his death on the Western Front in 1917.

Digital show in cafe area of Thomas' own photos from his book, In Pursuit of Spring (1913) by kind permission of the Thomas Archive, Cardiff University.

SUNDAY 9 JULY 7pm
Rook Lane Chapel
£15

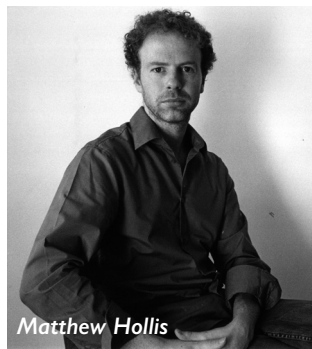

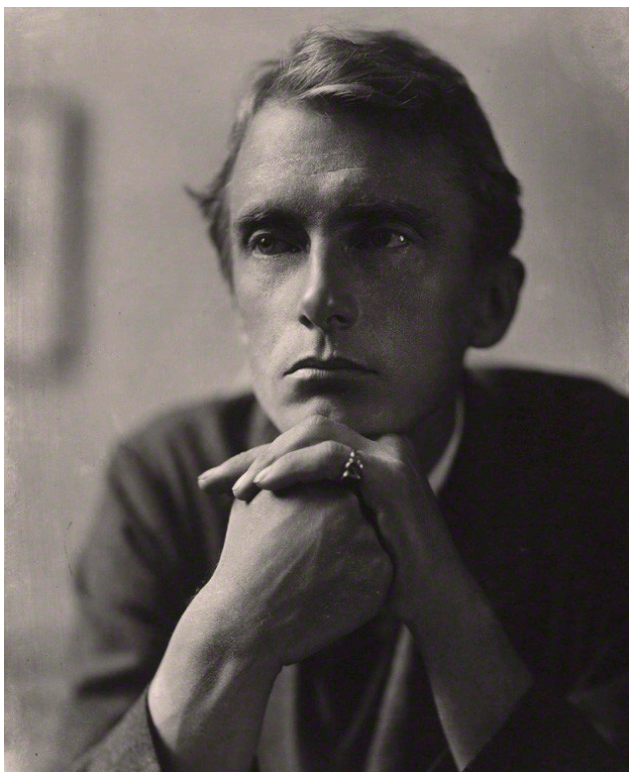

Photo credit: Claire McNamee

Matthew Hollis

For more information on all these events please see the festival brochure or website at www.fromefestival.co.uk

Stephanie Cole, James Laurenson and Martin Bax

FROME FESTIVAL
FRIDAY 07 - SUNDAY 16 JULY 2017

Tickets available from Monday 22 May
at the Cheese & Grain Box Office 01373 455420
box.office@cheeseandgrain.com

The Life and Work of Edward Thomas

FROME FESTIVAL POETRY CAFE

Cryse Morrison's annual Festival Poetry Café, featuring guest poet Deborah Harvey. Open Mic on the theme 'That Adlestrop Moment' to find 2017 Frome Festival Poet Laureate.

MONDAY 10 JULY, 7.30pm
Garden Café, £5 on the door
- no advanced bookings

Cryse Morrison and Martin Bax

FESTIVAL CRICKET MATCH

A Bax family team plays the village side. Edward Thomas played for a Bax team at Broughton Gifford in 1912, scoring 2 runs.

SUNDAY 16 JULY, 2pm
Broughton Gifford Common,
Free

THE ADLESTROP WALK

Post-festival 6 mile walk around Adlestrop with voluntary wardens from the Cotswold Area of Outstanding Beauty. Please bring packed lunch. Includes talk and poems.

THURSDAY 20 JULY, 11am
Meet at Adlestrop Community Hall, Free

A. Duncan Williams, 1914

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF EDWARD THOMAS

Three-mile stroll with readings of Edward Thomas poems. Tea and talk at Tellisford Mill

SATURDAY 15 JULY, 2.30pm
Rode (meeting place on tickets), £3

For more information on all these events please see the festival brochure or website at www.fromefestival.co.uk

FROME FESTIVAL
FRIDAY 07 - SUNDAY 16 JULY 2017

Tickets available from Monday 22 May
at the Cheese & Grain Box Office 01373 455420
box.office@cheeseandgrain.com